II. HAVE GOT (avoir)

Auxiliaire pour indiquer la possession

Présent
	Forme complète	Forme contractée
I	have got	I've got
you	have got	you've got
he / she / it	has got	he / she / it's got
we	have got	we've got
you	have got	you've got
they	have got	they've got

- "Have got" ne s'emploie qu'au présent / "Have" : pour les autres temps

Ex. : I had a cold last week and I couldn't go to Scotland.

J'avais un rhume la semaine dernière et je n'ai pas pu aller en Ecosse.

- Forme interrogative : faire l'inversion du sujet et de l'auxiliaire mais en mettant "got" après le sujet.

Ex. : Have you got your English book? – As-tu ton livre d'anglais ?

- Forme négative : ajouter "not" entre "have" et "got".

La forme négative est presque toujours contractée. On emploie la forme complète pour insister sur la négation.

Ex. : We haven't got a castle, we've got a bungalow = forme contractée.

Nous n'avons pas un château, nous avons un bungalow.

I have not got your wallet, – forme complète.

Je n'ai pas ton porte-feuille.

10. They at home at the moment, they football training.

"To have"

- est un verbe ordinaire, pas un auxiliaire !
- ⇒ on n'emploie pas la forme contractée.

Ex. :

- I don't have any chairs yet, I just moved in. – Je n'ai pas encore de chaises, je viens d'emménager.
- Does she have a cat? – A-t-elle un chat ?
- We have a very big family. – Nous avons une grande famille.

- Attention, dans certaines expressions ; il ne se traduit pas toujours par « avoir ».

Ex. :

- I have lunch at home. – Je dine à la maison.
- Susan has a shower every evening. – Suzanne prend une douche tous les soirs.
- Casey isn't at home; he has a driving lesson. – Casey n'est pas à la maison; il prend un cours d'auto-école.
- We're having a good time at the sea. – Nous nous amusons bien à la mer.
- Did you have fun at the party last night? Yes, we did. – Vous étiez-vous bien amusés à la soirée hier soir ? Oui.
- The sun is shining. Let's have a walk in the park! – Le soleil brille. Allons-nous promener dans le parc !

FICHE N°3Le présent simple(Present Simple or Simple Present)I. FORMATION*A. Forme affirmative

Très facile à la forme affirmative ! On utilise la forme infinitive à toutes les personnes sauf à la troisième personne du singulier où l'on ajoute -s au verbe.

Ex.: To eat (manger)

Sujet	Verbe
I	eat
You	eat
He / she / it	eats
We	eat
You	eat
They	eat

Attention aux règles d'orthographe lorsqu'on ajoute la terminaison -s :

- Lorsqu'un infinitif se termine par -ss, -sh, -ch, -x ou -o, on ajoute -es à la troisième personne du singulier.

Ex.: to wash : she washes (se) laver ; elle (se) lave to do : he does faire ; il fait to watch : he watches regarder ; il regarde
to fix : he fixes réparer ; il répare

- Après -ss, -sh, -ch, -x, on prononce le -es [iz]

Ex.: - to miss : she misses rater ; elle rate
- to wash : he washes (se) laver ; elle (se) lave
- to watch : she watches regarder ; elle regarde
- to fix : she fixes réparer ; elle répare

- Lorsque l'infinitif se termine par :

- y, précédé d'une consonne, le -y se change en -i.
- to study : she studies étudier ; elle étudie
- y, précédé d'une voyelle, on garde -y.
- to play : it plays jouer ; il / elle joue

1. Mets les verbes suivants à la 3e personne du singulier.

Live :

Have :

Study :

Open :

Watch :

Kiss :

Like :

Pass :

Play :

Go :

Cost :

Wash :
